CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE K.S.JHAVERI

Date of decision: 02/08/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Rule. Ms PJ Davawala, Additional Central Government Standing Counsel waives service of rule. At the request of learned counsel for the parties the petition is finally heard today.

2. The petitioner states that through inadvertence his date of birth is wrongly mentioned in the Passport and the respondent authority has refused to entertain his request to correct the said mistake. According to the petitioner the correct date of birth is 13.09.1980 instead of 13.09.1977 in the Passport No.A-0253587.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent states that only on the basis of material given by the petitioner the date of birth was recorded in the passport. He further stated that no change in the passport is effected, but for making any correction in the passport, a new passport is normally issued by the authority with correct details if the authority is satisfied with the genuineness of the data to be corrected.

4. Having heard the parties and looking to the facts and circumstances and also the material placed on record, the respondent is directed to look into the case of the petitioner on the basis of the evidence already adduced or which may be adduced by the petitioner in support of his case to correct the date of birth as mentioned above. The respondent shall take appropriate decision in accordance with law after considering the relevant evidence adduced before him and shall pass an appropriate order as expeditiously as possible.

5. As the respondent authority will have to undertake the exercise of scrutinizing the case of the petitioner afresh because of the default committed by the petitioner in not placing correct facts at an earlier point of time, a sum of Rs. 5,000/- is ordered to be paid by the petitioner to the respondent authority by way of costs.

6. Accordingly the petition is allowed to the aforesaid extent. Rule is made absolute. D.S. permitted.
